TEUTON WAR CONSPIRACY AGAINST U. S. FOILED

Cub-S. A. Clash Stage Set

MAYOR TO HURL FIRST BALL IN CONFLICT ON POLY FIELD

Local Boosters Making Final Arrangements For Coming Of Chicago Players

PUBLICITY MAN SEYS BRINGS O. K. LINE-UP

Tip O'Neill, Jimmy Sheppard and Other Notables to Be Present

The stage is set for tomorrow's big battle. Only rain can interfere with the Cub-Santa Ana conflict.

Last-minute arrangements were being made today by Secretary Metzger of the Chamber of Commerce, Victor Walker and Alex Brownridge.

These three hustlers were aided and abetted by John O. Seys, publicity man for the Cubs, who breezed into town today, bringing with him the line-up and batting order that the Bruins will use.

Seys confirmed the report that Tip O'Neill, veteran of various activities in baseball, would have charge of the Cubs' end of the proceedings. O'Neill is the special agent on the coast for the club.

Sheppard Coming
Too, Seys announced positively that the athletes from the Windy City would be under the direct care, on the field, of Jimmy Sheppard, Cub coach.

The Cub line-up, as divulged by Seys today, is imposing. It is printed elsewhere on this page. Fred Mitchell, Cub manager, has made sure that Gavy Cravath, Rip Hagerman, Fred McMullen, Harry Hughes, "Doc" Crandall, et al, will have no easy time of it in tomorrow's melee.

Mayor A. J. Visel will pitch the first ball at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon, Metzger announced today.

When the pilgrims from the Lake Michigan section pry themselves loose from their seats in the Pacific Electric car on their arrival here sometime during mid-day tomorrow the joyous mitt will be extended them by a joint entertainment and reception committee composed of John A. McFadden, chairman; R. R. Miles, Charles Spicer, H. J. Lowe, Alex Brownridge, Sam Dungan, J. W. Taylor and several others.

"Feed" Still Doubtful
Whether the Chamber of Commerce would be able to carry out its intention of giving the visitors a "feed" and an automobile ride was still considerably in doubt at noon today. Metzger is on the job, though, and he will leave no stone unturned to show the pastimers that when it comes to hospitality the chamber of Commerce of Santa Ana is THERE.

Victor Walker announced that Dr. M. A. Patton and Harry Hansen are hold-outs. Walker wants to sign them as water carrier and bat boy, respectively. Walker says that if Patton and Hansen fail him he will make overtures to Sam Stein and George Peters. If the two latter refuse the honors George ("Husky") Young will hold down both positions—he says he can take care of both the water bucket and the bats unassisted.

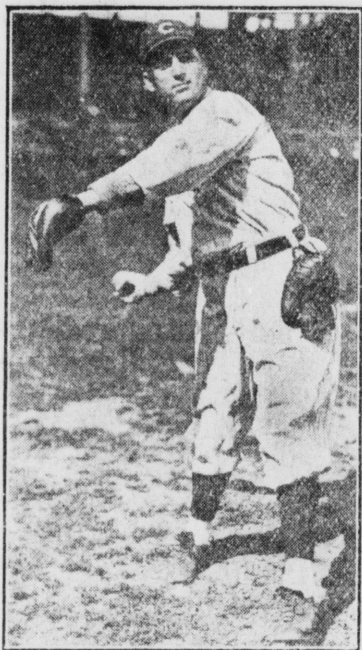

Indications this afternoon were that the crowd at the game will be the largest ever assembled in Orange county to witness an athletic contest. In fact, Metzger was cogitating whether or not to have some additional tickets printed.

Rooters Lay Plans
To assure that there will be plenty of noise during the game to aid in keeping up interest, Principal D. K. Hammond has made plans to have a high school rooters' section on hand.

To supply a considerable demand for men to herd the automobiles around and keep the excited throngs from crowding on to the diamond, the following of Coach "Shorty" Smith's Polytechnic baseball charges have volunteered:

Holzgrafe, Morrison, Burke, Ober, Vanderlip, Bryan, Tyrrell, Friend, Wicks, Ralph La Rue, Raney, Adams, Boice, Carnahan, Brooks, Gerheart, Pentecost and La Rue.

Victor Walker's demeanor today is somewhat aggrieved. He has been commissioned by Metzger to act as one of the gatekeepers and as a result he stands to be deprived of the chance of seeing the biggest part of the conflict. At last accounts he was making overtures to Metzger, seeking to be absolved from the ticket-grab-

SALT LAKE GOES TO M'PHERSON VIA LA HABRA AND OLIVE

Freight Agent Says S. P. Be Used to Santa Ana, Orange Off Main Line

ORANGE, Mar. 1.—The Salt Lake is to build a line from Whittier by way of La Habra, Yorba Linda and Olive to McPherson.

The Salt Lake is going to use the S. P. tracks from Anaheim to Santa Ana, after it reaches Anaheim from Whittier.

The Salt Lake has decided that it cannot build its main line through Orange.

The Salt Lake may run a branch freight line into Orange from some point between Villa Park and McPherson.

Eventually the Salt Lake will complete the loop from McPherson by a swing around to connect at Santa Ana.

These were among statements made here today by B. M. Jones, general freight agent of the Salt Lake.

Jones was here in connection with the meeting of the Santiago Orange Growers' Association. He said that he thought it likely that when the Salt Lake gets its freight line to McPherson, it would want to run a track to connect with the proposed pre-cooling plant, which it was today decided would be built here.

MIKADO SPURNS TEUTON OFFER

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Pleading for the continued friendship of America and a continuation of relations with the allies, the Japanese embassy in a formal statement today said that "under no circumstances" would Japan entertain such an "invitation" as Germany attempted to send to Tokyo.

NEWPORT POWERBOAT OWNERS MAY AID IN WORK OF U. S. DEFENSE

That owners of power boats at Newport may take active part in patrol and possibly defense duties in the event of a declaration of war between the United States and Germany, is indicated in the following letter, received by the secretary of the Newport Harbor Yacht Club:

"Will you kindly send to the commandant of the Twelfth Naval District, 417 Sheldon building, San Francisco, a list of your officers and members with their addresses as soon as possible? Also would like, if possible, a list of power boats showing owner, type, size, speed, horsepower, berth accommodations and when built."

The letter was signed by C. Willard Evans, chairman of the California section of the American Power Boat Association, San Francisco.

The letter was mailed in a Navy Department envelope. The letter is taken as evidence that the power boat association is co-operating actively with the Navy Department in the work of mobilizing power boats in case of eventualities.

WILSON VOUCHES FOR GENUINENESS OF LETTER BARING PLOT TO GET MEXICO AND JAPAN ON CENTRAL POWERS' SIDE

BY ROBERT J. BENDER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Germany's attempt to align Mexico and Japan in a hostile conspiracy against the United States has been frustrated.

At the state department today, it was intimated that so far as is known, the letter of Germany's foreign secretary, Zimmerman, the authenticity of which was vouched for by President Wilson, personally, to the senate today, never reached President Carranza. Being thus intercepted, it was never passed on to Japan.

That the Japanese government would not consider any proposition such as that advocated by Secretary of Foreign Affairs Zimmerman in his Mexican-Japanese "plot" note was the conviction expressed by Secretary Lansing today.

Lansing authorized the following statement:

"The department does not believe that Japan has had any knowledge of this, or that she would consider any proposition made by an enemy."

Secretary Lansing said further:

We have confidence that Mexico would not become a party to it, in view of the friendly relations between America and the de facto government."

While withholding discussion of the source of the government's information, it admitted that it has full evidence of the plot and that a note reached Count Von Bernstorff here, and the German minister in Mexico.

It is intimated that the government has been working for four months on the case but has only recently been able to secure conclusive plot evidence.

Attention is called to the fact that in his instructions Zimmerman stipulated that Eckhardt should only broach the matter to President Carranza "as soon as it is certain that there will be an outbreak of war with the United States." It is pointed out that this certainly had not developed at the time American Ambassador Bernstorff left this country.

Doubt as to the authenticity of the Zimmerman letter, voiced in the senate early today, because of its text having first become public through the press, was quickly dispelled by Senator Swanson, who made a formal statement announcing that the President had authorized him to say the published text was substantially correct.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—President Wilson stands sponsor for the declaration that Germany attempted to plot Japan and Mexico into a conspiracy against the United States.

In a formal statement, Senator Swanson told the senate today: "President Wilson authorizes me to say that the Zimmerman letter to the German embassy in Mexico, proposing an alliance with Japan and Mexico is substantially correct."

The statement followed the introduction of a resolution by Senator Lodge inquiring as to the correctness of the letter.

Senator La Follette wanted the Lodge measure modified so it would bring out when the letter came into this government's possession. Lodge acceded to the modification.

Senator Hardwick indicated his intention to object, saying it was a serious matter and that the President could be relied upon to inform the senate if he deemed it wise and that in any case the executive himself would act properly. Lodge flared up.

"I put it in because it is a serious matter. If it is false the country ought to know it to allay the excitement it has caused. If it is true certainly Congress ought to know it."

Senator Works, California, said it is now due to Congress and to the country that President Wilson fully present to Congress "all information" he may have.

Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee, made a deliberate appeal to the senate to refer the resolution to his committee "for further necessary investigation and inquiry before ill-considered action be taken."

"We are not informed as to the source of this news. We have no facts. It may not be authentic; it may not be true."

"We do know, however, that every possible agency has been used to excite American public opinion. There may be," Stone said slowly, "something behind this alleged news of which we do not know. It is the wiser course to permit the committee to investigate."

Stone, one of the President's strongest supporters, seemed to take no cognizance of the words which had just fallen from the lips of Senator Swanson, giving official authentication to the conspiracy.

WILSON BARES PLOT TO STIR THE NATION

By Robert J. Bender
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Germany wants to play Mexico and Japan actively against the United States in case of war.

This plot, revealed by the administration today through documentary proof of Germany's machinations, was put forth to sway a dallying Congress and stir the nation to the real perils of the German problem.

Facing the possibility of further delay in Congress, plus opposition to avoidance of an extra session, the administration played its trump card—the correspondence between Germany and its Mexican representative, whereby it sought to align Mexico and Japan belligerently against the United States. The documents, in possession of this government for some time, show clearly that Germany meant to play this tremendous menace as a club over the United States to keep her neutral and to prevent the stand the United States took on the latest ruthless submarine edict.

Gives Lie to Surprise
Besides being designed as a check to over-enthusiastic, but perhaps well-meaning pacifists, who, it was feared, would lull the nation into too great a feeling of security, it gave the lie direct to German expressions of surprise, voiced by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg over America's "misinterpretation" of Germany's unlimited U-boat war decree. It also stands as a reply to Bethmann-Hollweg's feigned surprise at the "brusqueness" of President Wilson in breaking the friendly relations between Germany and America that was "an heirloom from Frederick the Great."

A letter, forming the basis of Germany's plotting, forwarded from Berlin January 19, via Count von Bernstorff, for the German envoy, Von Eckhardt at Mexico City, said:

"On the first of February we intend to begin submarine warfare unrestricted. In spite of this, it is our intention to endeavor to keep the United States of America neutral. If this attempt is not successful we propose an alliance on the following basis with Mexico:

"That we shall make war together and peace together.

"We shall give general financial support and it is understood that Mexico is to reconquer the lost territory in New Mexico, Texas and Arizona.

"You are instructed to inform the president of Mexico of the above in the greatest confidence as soon as it is certain that there will be an outbreak of war with the United States and suggest that the president of Mexico on his own initiative should communicate with Japan, suggesting adherence at once to this plan at the same time offering to mediate between Germany and Japan. Please call to the attention of the president of Mexico that the employment of ruthless submarine warfare now promises to compel England to make peace in a few months."

(Signed) ZIMMERMAN
This and other documents in the hands of government heads, is the answer to the administration's insistence upon power for President Wilson to arm ships and otherwise deal with the German problem. It was understood in administration circles.

It is the answer to the administration's apparent anxiety regarding Japan, as shown in efforts to kill anti-alien legislation aimed at the Japs.

It is the answer to President Wilson's "going slowly" in order that he might be the better prepared for action when the time came.

Above all it is intended as the goad to Congress.

Just how Mexico and Japan have reacted to the plot is not known.

SOLON DEMANDS EXTRA SESSION

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—The House rules committee today reported the rule providing immediate consideration of the administration Flood bill authorizing the President to arm American merchantmen against attack.

Chairman Henry of the rules committee was expected to bring up the rules within a half hour.

Three hours' general debate on the bill is provided.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Senator Norris today indicated on the Senate floor that he will insist on a "full and complete discussion" of all appropriation bills pending. If this is executed, it means an extra session. Thomas of Colorado, Democrat, demanded an extra session, saying "This may prove the greatest crisis the country ever faced. It is the duty of Congress to be here."

SWISS MINISTER HELD IN BAD ODOR

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—While officials refuse to comment officially, some privately admit today that the administration is beginning to believe that Swiss Minister Ritter, in charge of German affairs here, has taken up German propaganda, which may force a showdown later.

The report that Germany proposed to detain five American consuls until assured that the German consuls had left America safely is ascribed to Dr. Ritter.

BLOCKADE TO CONTINUE, SAYS ZIMMERMAN

LONDON, Mar. 1.—Foreign Secretary Zimmerman, in the Reichstag, referring to a "telegram from the Swiss minister at Washington, saying that America desires to avoid war provided that Germany is willing to treat on the question of the submarine blockade," said:

"Germany is resolved at all costs to maintain the blockade, but naturally wishes to reach an understanding with America without a declaration of hostilities between the two nations."

GERMANY WOULD PLACE WEAPON ON U. S.

BERLIN, Mar. 1.—If America decides that the Laconia sinking is cause for war Germany will regard responsibility for the conflict as resting upon America. Authoritative circles state that Germany, having warned the world of the barred zone, it is the neutrals' fault if ships are destroyed in the zone.

TEUTONS AID VILLA, EL PASO REPORT

EL PASO, Tex., Mar. 1.—Government investigators on the border, it was learned today, have information that Germans are advising Villa's field campaign and aiding him financially. It is declared that 200 Germans in Northern Mexico have now been given special privileges by Villa and Carranzistas.

30,000 TROOPS ARE QUARANTINED ON LINE AS PNEUMONIA RAGES

EL PASO, Tex., Mar. 1.—Thirty thousand regular and national guard troops stationed at El Paso have been quarantined in their camps here because of an epidemic of pneumonia among the troops. The quarantine will last two weeks but will not affect the movement of militia organizations ordered home.

WOULD PREVENT ASSOCIATIONS GOING UNDER DIRECTOR

Associated Chambers Wants Co-operatives Free of State Market Man

WOULD PRESERVE THE COUNTY ADV. FUND

County Urged to Commence Early to Plan For Two Big Shows of the Year

At the meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County last night, at Westminster:

1—A resolution was passed urging the defeat of the bills proposing to place commission merchants under the jurisdiction of the state market director, because it is feared the measure would be a blow to citrus, walnut and other co-operative associations.

2—A resolution was passed against doing away with county advertising funds.

3—L. H. Wallace announced that since an acre of ground had to be condemned a delay of ninety days in starting jetty construction would occur.

4—The kelp control bill was referred to the legislative committee with power to recommend.

5—Suggestions to begin early in the year for a float at the Tournament of Roses and for an exhibit at the National Orange Show met with approval.

The Associated Chambers of Commerce went strongly on record as opposed to several bills introduced into the legislature having to do with the control of marketing products. The measures are supposed to have the backing of State Market Director Harris Weinstein. Although the measures appear to deal largely with commission merchants, Attorney Walter Eden, member of the legislative committee of the Associated Chambers, declared that he was convinced that it was so worded that the associations would be dealt a blow. Under it, he said that associations would be licensed, licenses could be taken away for slight infractions of rules, and associations would have to make reports of all its operations to the state market director.

In the resolution as passed the opposition expressed was hedged with the proviso, "unless fruit exchanges are excepted from the operations of this measure."

D. Eymann Huff, manager of the Hewes ranch, former manager of the Orange County Fruit Exchange, declared that the measures as worded would result in smashing the efficiency of the associations, and would throw fruit and nut marketing affairs back into the chaotic conditions they were in years ago.

A. S. Bradford of Placentia declared the associations could run the business of the fruit growers without the advice or interference of a market director, because the associations are thoroughly organized.

Concerning Fish

Eden read a bill that proposes to place the marketing of fish under the market director of the state. L. H. Wallace, J. A. Armitage and Elmer Jahraus, familiar with the fishing industry, said the measure would benefit the fishermen and the consumers. At present even when fishermen get but a cent a pound, Los Angeles markets sell fish at retail at fifteen cents per pound regardless of supply.

John A. McFadden of Santa Ana, chairman of the legislative committee, introduced a resolution in opposition to the bill that proposes to do away with advertising funds in counties. State Senator Evans and Assemblyman Burke were asked to oppose the measure.

The Two Big Shows

J. A. Armitage of Sunset Beach, chairman of the exhibits committee, reported the success of Orange County with its float at the Tournament of Roses and with its splendid exhibit at the National Orange Show. He declared that the Associated Chambers should proceed now to appoint a committee for each of those big publicity opportunities. Not knowing that the county was to enter until the last minute, the committees were handicapped.

L. H. Wallace said he thought the county should center on the National Orange Show, where eight days of publicity could be obtained, and pass up the Tournament of Roses.

R. L. Bisby of Santa Ana went against Wallace's proposal to drop the Tournament of Roses. Bisby strongly urged an early start. He said Bradford had made the county exhibit at San Bernardino and ought to be made chairman for next year.

Up Against Delay

As chairman of the harbor committee, Wallace said Newport Beach is up against a delay of three months because it will have to condemn an acre of land to which the jetty will be anchored. The owner wants $25,000 for the piece of sand.

"Have you anything to report upon a submarine base at Newport Harbor?" asked President Bradford.

"There is nothing to report," said Wallace.

Kelp Controversy

N. Philbrook of Laguna Beach reported that he opposed placing the control of kelp beds in the hands of the Fish and Game Commission, as proposed in the Mouser bill. He said the control and income should be the county's. L. H. Wallace said that the first step to be taken is to secure some kind of control and though he was not impressed by the fish and game commission, he thought better have control placed there than nowhere.

The matter was referred to the legislative committee, which has power to investigate and make a recommendation to the state senator and assemblyman.

No Report Yet

None of the committee appointed to report upon the alleged favoritism shown by D. W. McDannald, representing the county at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, was present. N. Frank Morse of Placentia declared that the north end of the county ought to have no kick for McDannald had sent a large number of prospective settlers there.

Splendid Report

One of the most interesting features of the evening was the splendid report given by A. S. Bradford of the National Orange Show. Bradford was the head and shoulders of the Orange County exhibit. In detail he told of the difficulties overcome, and of the great advertising value he found it to be for the county. He said the table with 126 varieties upon it was a big thing at the show. As between Orange County and Lindsey, Orange County won the award on grapefruit through the flavor. He said that some other places plan months ahead for the show, while Orange County goes in with a pick-up exhibit. It wins prizes, but by preparation it ought to do much better next year. Bradford at the show secured an exhibit of fruit in a New York city bank, and a write-up of the county in an Iowa paper.

Splendid Music

During the banquet, which was held in the auditorium of Westminster's attractive, modern schoolhouse, singing by Mrs. Anna Campbell and Clifford Johnston was enjoyed. In solos and duets these splendid singers, to the capable accompaniment of Mrs. Orel Hare at the piano, entertained the guests throughout the banquet. The tables were tastefully decorated by the Westminster Improvement Association.

The address of welcome, made by Rev. W. T. Wardle, was full of wit and good nature. The response was by L. H. Wallace.

The next meeting will be in Santa Ana, and at it officers for the coming year will be elected.

To all my friends I am saying, 'Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar for a gripper, coughs, colds and croup. A genuine cure.'" Rowley Drug Co.

STATE CONTROL OF RY. TAX MAY GO TO U. S. SAYS THELEN

National Commissioner Makes Startling Assertion In Letter

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 1.—That all railroad properties in the country may be taken away from the tax jurisdiction of the various states and used hereafter exclusively for federal revenue is the startling assertion of Max Thelen, president of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners, outlined in a letter to the California Tax Commission.

At the present time, President Thelen points out, there is a definite proposal before the Newlands Joint Congressional Committee to have the federal government assume practically all the powers which the states now exercise over railroads. The taking over of the right to tax railroads exclusively for federal purposes has also been suggested, although not yet formally incorporated as a part of the congressional program.

The effect of such drastic action by Congress would completely revolutionize the revenue system of every state in the Union. In California it would eliminate from state and local taxation the property of the Southern Pacific, Western Pacific, Salt Lake and Santa Fe.

President Thelen commends the California Tax Commission for taking the leadership in the call for a congress of the states to consider the constantly increasing difficulties arising from the persistent encroachment by Congress upon the tax domain of the states. He suggests that the proposed conference take up this new problem for serious consideration.

The Tax Commission today laid the Thelen letter before the Senate and Assembly committees on taxation and revenue.

CAL. CORPORATION FIGURES REVEALED

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 1.—During the year 1916, 1563 corporations having an aggregate authorized capital stock of $478,671,684 made application to the State Corporation Department for authority to issue their securities.

During the year, 1,534 corporations were permitted by Commissioner of Corporations H. L. Carnahan to issue 47,973,729 shares of their capital stock at an aggregate selling price of $159,465,141 and bonds of the face value of $34,808,636.

The total selling price of all of the securities authorized to be issued amounts to $194,213,777, considerably more than half a million dollars per day for the 365 days of the year, indicating to some extent the tremendous activities of corporate business in California.

The minimum selling price of the bonds authorized was $31,175,569, showing that California companies during the past year have netted better than 95 per cent of par.

The maximum commissions allowed on the sale of shares aggregated $2,836,515.

The expense of operating the department for the first two years was $65,783.86, amounting to less than one-fiftieth of one per cent of the selling price of the securities authorized to be sold during the same period.

A Civil War veteran met his death last Sunday night when the Coquard liner Laconia was sunk by a torpedo from a German U-boat. William Eva was the veteran and he was a close personal friend and former associate of H. E. McAfee, one of the promoters of the woolen mills of this city.

McAfee and Eva were associated in mining operations in California and Nevada a number of years ago. Eva has passed most of his time in England in recent years. McAfee and Eva sold their interests in the Loretto copper mine in Esmeralda county, Nevada, several years ago.

Eva was drawing a pension from the United States as a veteran.

ATTORNEY TELLS OF SETTLEMENT OF CAMPBELL CASE

Points Out That Overtures For Compromise Came From the Contestant

In view of the widespread interest that there was in the contest of the will of Charles C. Campbell of Orange, for the reason that a great many people knew of the contest being instituted and because allegations were contained in the contest which reflected upon the reputation and integrity of D. F. Campbell, a widely known citizen of Orange, and since there were published a number of articles in relation to the trial and the testimony on the part of the contestant and in reference to the settlement, a review of the settlement of the case by Attorney Clyde C. Shoemaker of Los Angeles, formerly of Orange, is both timely and interesting.

The impression to be gained from a report that the settlement was arrived at perhaps more through the overtures of our client, D. F. Campbell, than upon the part of the contestant, Mrs. Margaret Ferris, and that by the settlement the contestant received as much as she would have in case the contest had succeeded, is incorrect.

The contestant, on the morning of the trial and before the jury was even seated, sought for several hours to obtain a settlement. The proposition of settlement from the first was urged by the contestant through her attorneys and not by our client. After contestant had made several propositions, which, to our mind, were absurd and utterly unreasonable, she insisted that our client make some offer on his part.

We replied that we had no offer to make, for the reason that we were satisfied that D. F. Campbell was absolutely in the right and that he was bound to prevail in the case. We stated that if any offer was to be made it should come from the contestant. However, her attorneys contended that as we had refused to consider any of their propositions of settlement, which were around the $10,000 mark, D. F. Campbell ought to indicate by some offer what he would be willing to do by way of settlement.

Thereupon, for the sake of harmony in the family, our client, D. F. Campbell, consented to make an offer to the contestant of 25 per cent of the residue of the estate after the payment of all the bequests mentioned in the will, of which there were thirteen in addition to those in favor of the children of D. F. Campbell.

The contestant's attorneys declared they could not consider such an offer and we told them to take it or leave it; that we were all ready for trial. The trial then proceeded for five days, and we had no further thought of any settlement or compromise, until suddenly, at the noon recess on February 20, contestant's attorneys again urged that the contest be settled. We had made no suggestion in the matter ourselves since the negotiations had broken off on the morning before the trial commenced.

On the 20th, when the contestant again sought to obtain a settlement, we told her attorneys that if they wanted to accept the offer which our client had made before the trial commenced, they were at liberty to do so, but that we had no more favorable offer to submit. We figured that, as a matter of business, it was cheaper to settle on the basis of the offer which we made than to proceed with an expensive trial which would probably continue for at least a month longer. The result was that at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon of the 20th the contestant announced, through her attorneys, that they had accepted the offer which D. F. Campbell had made before the trial commenced.

The contestant had not introduced a single iota of evidence tending to show undue influence on the part of our client, and her attorneys, in open court, as shown by the record, declared that they had no evidence to sustain that phase of the case and stipulated that the jury might return a verdict that the will was not procured through any undue influence on the part of D. F. Campbell. We are satisfied that the contestant knew as well as we that no evidence of undue influence existed.

Furthermore, the contestant then moved the court to dismiss the contest as to the charge of unreasonableness of mind, which motion was granted by Judge West, and thereafter a judgment of dismissal was signed by

But we make it with the full knowledge that you are going to be the judge. If you have tried "Honeysuckle" you know that we speak the truth. If you haven't, you will know it the moment you bite into this delicious loaf.

The secret of the enormous demand for Honeysuckle Bread is in the baking of it. The unusual flavor, quality and palatableness are due to a special method of mixing the dough and to the fine quality of ingredients used.

DR. ZIMMERMAN 106 1/2 W. Fourth St. Santa Ana.

Judge West as to the insanity charge and a judgment in favor of the will and exonerating D. F. Campbell was entered upon the jury's verdict as to the charge of undue influence.

In the settlement Mrs. Ferris did not receive as much as she would have received had the will been broken. To say that she did would be absurd, for the reason that the small portion which Mrs. Ferris received in the settlement will have to be distributed by her between the other heirs, the same as if the will had been broken, and she will only receive her share of such amount, which would be about one-fifth, besides being out the costs of the case and her attorneys' fees. If the will had been set aside the estate would have been divided into six parts, and Mrs. Ferris would have had about $22,000 to distribute instead of the sum of $5500, being the approximate amount which she received under the settlement.

On our side we had at least thirty-five witnesses to be called to prove that Charles C. Campbell was perfectly competent at the time he made the will and to show conclusively that no undue influence in the least was ever exercised on the part of D. F. Campbell. We were equally confident of the outcome of the case as to both charges contained in the contest and only settled because it was more reasonable to make the offer which we did, both as a matter of business and for the sake of the family, than to proceed to the end with a long and expensive lawsuit.

Any Corn Will Dry Up and Lift Out, Says a Cincinnati Authority

—Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain.

Some Phases of Administration

Understanding a danger or an opportunity, we avert the one or seize the other. Knowing what may become of our affairs after we leave them, we avoid danger and assume safety by careful preparation. Your affairs when you have laid them aside will pass to the hands of an executor (chosen by yourself) or to an administrator (chosen by someone for you). When that executor or administrator has made and filed an inventory for your estate, he will proceed to arrange for the payment of your debts. If there is not sufficient cash on hand, he will dispose of some of the personal property, notes, stocks, bonds, and even household goods at times, to raise the necessary funds. Here is where good judgment, and experience come into play. Lacking these qualities valuable securities may be sacrificed and be disposed of at a fraction of their value. Choose then, an executor for yourself. Chose one of proven discretion, responsibility and judgment. Advise that executor of your plans for the future. Be sure that he will enter intelligently into them and thus avoid the rocks upon which estates are wrecked. The business of the Orange County Trust and Savings Bank is the management and settlement of estates. It has provided the trained officials, the system of accounting and the financial responsibility which this important task requires. It invites consultation, strictly confidential, of course, and without charge.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

CALIFORNIA SETTING THE PACE

San Francisco is the first big city to abolish boycotting and picketing and is going to be first to enact a mediation law. The proposed mediation act does not deny the right to strike, but suspends that right pending a period for fullest investigation.

The whole business and industrial activity of the state is affected by a strike on a railroad, telegraph or telephone system. Arbitration and mediation have won more for labor in Great Britain in the past ten years, twice over, than was accomplished by strikes. These principles are bound to become state and national laws and the sooner the better for all interests of employed and employer alike.

The California law provides for a board of mediators to reconcile differences between opposing interests in harmony with public opinion. In Canada a similar law enacted in 1907 has resulted in compromising ninety per cent of the strikes and lockouts without stopping work.

American Federation of Labor and organized labor in California fight the principle of mediation and arbitration, but it will win.

The principle involved is that public interest is greater than that of either party to strike or lockout and "let the people rule."

INTERESTS THAT GET INDUSTRIES

The Auburn Republican says the greatest need of that town today is to find some way to give employment to the people. Like many other towns, Auburn would welcome even small industries and can do with less expenditure of wasteful energies.

Many citizens have money lying idle in the banks or drawing low rates of interest but they are unwilling to invest in industries. Many of these towns are in great fruit-producing sections and have abundance of transportation facilities and unused power.

The Republican makes the wise suggestion that the town donate ground for a site for a cannery or of a by-products factory.

There are three interests in any town which if they are united will bring factories and sometimes bring mighty big ones. First is the pride and good will of the community that is called by the name of public spirit. The second interest might be called the real estate interest—the vacant land interest that will furnish sites for factories. This interest is always benefitted by a new industry, as other lots are made more valuable and become sites for home of employees. The third big interest that must be united to get industries and that is vitally interested and benefitted is transportation.

Unite public spirit, real estate and transportation on any fairly energetic committee for a good practical proposition and you win.—The Manufacturer.

INCOME TAX RETURNS

The last of February is an irksome time for many of our higher-ups. They feel unhappy about their fortunes, as they fuss and fret and fume over the job of making a federal income tax return. It calls for the untangling of some complicated business problems in many cases. If an error is made, a labyrinth of red tape may have to be unwound to correct it.

It was commonly predicted before the law went into effect that rich people would conceal a good part of their incomes. As you see the satisfaction that many people take in cheating Uncle Sam at the custom house, this seems quite likely. Many persons who would worry over cheating a grocer out of fifty cents are highly gratified to get the better of the government.

Yet severe penalties are enforced for violation of this tax law, which may well turn back some of our white liars. They would better reflect that the internal revenue men will be comparing one year's return with another. If there are startling discrepancies, they may have to show up their private accounts. They will be in much better position in this case if they have made up their figures in strict conformity to facts.

There is nothing smart in cheating the government. Temporarily it leaves a little more money in one's pocket. But if any considerable number of people do it, the resources of the government are depleted. It becomes evident on the face of it that people of wealth are holding themselves above the law.

That creates anarchists and social-lists and foments strikes and all industrial disorders. The man who saves ten dollars through a false tax return may live to see his property injured thousands of dollars through the social unrest he has helped to create.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

Inaugural Pomp
Objections to any more than the simplest form of inaugural have been voiced by a number of senators—at least by one—and, arithmetically considered, one is a number.

Simplicity is fine in some connections. The ordinary citizen of quiet life should not be laid away after a fussy funeral, but an inaugural by its nature is and should be an august occasion.

Of course this is democracy, and all that sort of thing, but, despite this election to the presidency is more interesting and important than election as county constable.

Just Like a Movie

Recently two men walked into a Los Angeles bank in broad daylight, presented pistols at the gentlemen behind the brass wire, and walked out with considerable fine gold and such stuff.

Probably had the whole transaction been witnessed by the ordinary street crowd they would have glanced around casually, wondering where the camera was concealed, and gone on.

High Paper

The general growl at the high cost of paper rises to a screech of agony at Denver. There the purchaser of a daily avers that the former owners soaked him for half a million too much.

Sorry to see the old Rocky Mountain News getting such a jolt in its reputation. Did the first reporting of my life on that sheet, when half a million would have bought it, lock, stock, baller, good will, tradition and hope, and four-fifths of the sum would have been left, at that.

Gasoline

To show that no more than a fair price is being charged for gasoline, it may be stated that the Standard Oil Company of California comes to the end of the year with a net profit of only $17,605,303.

Now doesn't it stand to reason that with the concern's facilities for making dividends, that had it been greedy it would have gone after real money?

The Wisdom Tooth

A young man arrested for passing wicked and wanton checks was found to be wearing a wisdom tooth set in a ring.

The wisdom tooth is not a sign of wisdom, the designation having been invented by a joshier, but when worn on the finger it is a sure sign of a mental condition the exact opposite of wisdom.

Lending Money

It is rumored that a movie actor put $150,000 into the latest British war loan.

Bang! There went a whole day's salary!

A Long Time

Ex-Ambassador Gerard is said to have remarked, in a certain stress of circumstances, that he'd "sit here until hell freezes over."

From this may be inferred that Mr. Gerard was making a noble reach for the limit in emphasis.

Cats and Dogs

I am told that there is a bill pending at Sacramento, the purpose of which is to turn over for scientific experiment all cats and dogs that may be strays, or have the mischance to fall into the hands of a catcher.

It has been part of my experience to know many dogs, and some of them curs of low degree and unhappy temper. I never yet have known a dog-catcher to be morally or intellectually up to the level of the meanest mongrel he ever tormented.

Among my personal friends are several worthy cats, and I enjoy a speaking acquaintance with others. Any person who would cause any of these cats, or any other cats, to be turned over to be knifed or tortured as science might like would be cut from my list as unfit for human association.

Of course this is an individual opinion, and may be prejudiced, but dogs and cats are highly respected by me, and I allow for their weaknesses of character, while the men who mutilate the helpless creatures probably were not born in a coal hole, nor nurtured on a garbage-can bone, and ought to feel the impulse of kindness towards the helpless.

Schools of Journalism

Since so successful a journalist as the late Joseph Pulitzer left money to found a school of journalism, it would be presumptuous for ordinary newspaper men to declare that such a school had no value.

However, they do go so far as to venture the opinion that a professor of journalism ought to be capable of holding down a job as reporter. Of course, though, there is more in professing.

Songs that rang with the spirit of Americanism and demonstrations of loyalty to the President were interspersed with travesties on the peace note leak investigation, women suffrage pickets at the White House gates, prohibition for the District of Columbia, California's part in the national election and senator-elect Hiram Johnson impersonated with other satirical allusions.

PHILLIPS SERIOUS COMEDY BE SHOWN BY HIGH SCHOOL

The principal feature of the High School mid-year entertainment is a one-act serious comedy entitled "Limpy," written and produced by Ernest Crozier Phillips, a Santa Ana High School teacher.

In this play, Phillips has brought out with wonderful clearness the life in a, or rather some, college "frat" houses. The scene of the play is laid in a "frat" house and shows the result of a "bad apple in the basket." Donald Jerome plays the title role, the part of a crippled street "newsie" who happens in at the proper moment and shows the leading men the way out of their troubles. Mr. Jerome plays this part in such a natural way that one cannot help but like him. Ben Shafer has a leading role in the part of a student who is gradually slipping to the bad. Frank Sprouell will play the part of a would-be sport while Hugh Osborne comes in as his echo. Eugene Trago, Paul Jones, Ralph Shappell and Berckly Davis play the other parts in true professional style.

While the play is the leading feature of the evening, it is by no means the extent of the program. The program contains something to suit everybody. The entertainment is to be held at Clune's Theater, Friday, March 2, at 8:15 p. m.

Temple Theater

Little less pathetic than the story of Lincoln himself, though keyed in a minor and less heroic strain, is the story of Sam D. Drane, who plays the part of the great Emancipator in "The Crisis," at the Temple Theater Friday, Saturday and Sunday this week. Lincoln was stricken down before he saw the results of a great work to which he had devoted so many bitter years of his life. Drane died before he realized the fame that is bound to come to him in his extraordinary recreation of the greatest, yet simplest and most human figure in American history.

The West End

Louise Huff and Jack Pickford not long ago were playing ultra-ultra persons in Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen" and they had no sooner completed work in that picture than the hands of the studio clock were turned back nearly a hundred years—and they found themselves Dickens characters. In other words, they are starring in the Famous Players adaptation of the celebrated novelist's "Great Expectations" which is the Paramount attraction at the West End Theater tonight and tomorrow.

Thirty-third Meeting District
No. 50 In Session At Odd
Fellows' Hall

A very inspiring and instructive day and evening was enjoyed yesterday by the Rebekahs of District No. 50, which held its thirty-third meeting in Odd Fellows' hall with a very large assemblage, including many high officials and distinguished visitors. Every lodge in the district was represented and there were visitors from Los Angeles, Ventura, Gardena, Pasadena, Redlands, Artesia, Glendora and from the states of Michigan and Texas.

The officials present included Mrs. Page Desda Ratter, the Rebekah assembly president, of Oakland; Mrs. Ada Madison, past president from Los Angeles; Mrs. Mary E. Donoho, grand secretary; Mrs. Ella Van Court, of Los Angeles, past president and Past president Mrs. Fannie Lacy of Torosa Lodge, this city. Mrs. Ethel W. Golder, district deputy, was president of the meeting, the other officers for the day being Mrs. Morgan of Westminster, vice president; Mrs. Maggie Moore of Huntington Beach, treasurer; Mrs. Nellie Young, of Santa Ana, secretary; Mrs. Sarah Flowers of Long Beach, chaplain; Mrs. Mabel Crescent of Orange, past president; Mrs. Hattie Peters of Santa Ana, inside guardian, and Mrs. Blanche Porter, of Orange, outside guardian.

The hall was beautifully decorated with feathery acacia and greenery and the school of instruction conducted was most interesting. It was decided to do away with the banner for the largest percentage of members present from any lodge and substitute a loving cup, which was on display and won by Acacia lodge of Long Beach.

Luncheon was served at noon in the banquet room, the tables being prettily decorated in the lodge colors of pink and green.

Torosa lodge had charge of the evening meeting, a feature of the gathering being the entrance of the assembly president, Mrs. Page Desda Ratter, with an escort of Canton members, as a courtesy to her and to her husband, General Ritter.

The procession was followed by little girls with baskets filled with violets and as the officers were seated, each was presented with the pretty gift.

Past President Mrs. Fannie Lacy presented Mrs. Ritter with a beautiful cut glass and silver fern dish from the lodge and in turn received from Mrs. Golder a basket of lovely carnations and a card case from Noble Grand Mrs. Irene Mitchell. Felicitous speeches were made, after which a chicken banquet was served below stairs. The favor cards were large "R's," honoring Mrs. Ritter and the Rebekahs.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING
Miss Hazel Waite Becomes
Bride of Charles Lipscombe
Yesterday Evening

One of the prettiest and simplest of home weddings was solemnized yesterday evening at 8 o'clock at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Waite on North Broadway, when their only daughter, Hazel Alene, became the winsome bride of Charles Lipscombe of Old Newport, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lipscombe.

The spacious rooms were massed with clusters of snow white blossoms in jardiniere and wide bowls. The electroliers were wreathed with lacy ferns and in the archway between the parlor and the dining room garlands of ferns were studded with the waxen bells of the hyacinth and pale pink rosebuds. A large bowl of pink tulle was looped in the center of the doorway, where the simple lines were repeated by Rev. Alvah Andrews of Old Newport, who officiated at his first wedding ceremony and is himself a groom of a few months. The ring ceremony was used.

Only relatives witnessed the marriage, a feature being the presence of three grandmothers, Mrs. Farnsworth on the groom's side and Mrs. Louise W. Young and Mrs. Louise Waite, grandmothers of the bride.

As the bride and groom entered unattended, Miss Ruth Andrews, cousin of the bride, beautifully rendered Lohengrin's wedding march on the piano. The bride was very sweet in her beige colored suit with pale pink crepe de chine waist and carried sprays of Roman hyacinths and maiden hair tied with long loops of pink tulle.

After hearty congratulations and viewing the handsome and substantial wedding gifts, the happy couple departed for a wedding trip to Mount Lowe and other points of interest in Southern California, after which they will reside on the groom's ranch at Newport, where a cosy home awaits them.

The bride was born in Santa Ana, graduated from the high school in 1912 and from the State Normal in Los Angeles two years later. She taught school one year at Fairview. The groom is a well known and popular resident of his home district and the hosts of friends of the young couple will wish them much happiness and prosperity in their new life.

Dollar Social
The Amphion Circle of the Congregational church held a very pleasant dollar social yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Ada O'Brien. Delicate wild mustard was utilized for the attractive decorations and each lady told in rhyme, how she earned the dollar, which she presented.

For the most clever rhyme, Miss Jeannette Wherry was awarded the prize.
Refreshments were served of chocolate, sandwiches, wafers and orange straws. A goodly sum was received and more will be forthcoming from some not able to be present yesterday.

SCHROEDER-KUBITZ
Afternoon Nuptials of Popular
Young People Beautiful and Impressive

A beautiful afternoon wedding took place yesterday at three o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Kubitz on Santiago avenue, when their daughter, Miss Josephine Kubitz became the bride of Otto Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schroeder.

The home was attractively decorated with pink blossoms and ferns, the impressive ring ceremony being performed by Rev. J. M. Schaeffe of Los Angeles, uncle of the groom, as the bridal party stood by a lattice of greenery, studded with pink flowers, above which was suspended a pure white bell.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white tulle and net, trimmed with lace and silver and her flowing veil was caught with pearls and snowy orange blossoms. She carried a shower of white carnations and maiden hair ferns, which was later captured by Miss Edna Keuchel.

The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Kubitz, sister of the bride, was gowned in pale blue marquisette, taffeta trimmed and bore an arm bouquet of delicate pink carnations and ferns. The groom was accompanied by his cousin, Russell Schaeffe of Los Angeles.

As the bridal party entered, Miss Ruth Schroeder, the groom's sister, played Mendelssohn's wedding march, continuing the strains softly during the pledging of the vows and during the shower of hearty congratulations which followed.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Edna Keuchel sweetly sang that thrilling love song, "O Promise Me," and a trio composed of Misses Edna and Edith Keuchel and Ida Schroeder sang after the ceremony.

A dainty two-course wedding collation was spread for the wedding guests by three close friends of the bride, Misses Minnie Rohrs, Mary Lutz and Freda Schroeder, and they with the singers were presented with beautiful hand-made handkerchiefs by the bride, who also gave to her bridesmaid and pianist lovely cameo brooches.

Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder left in their automobile for a trip to San Diego, after which they will reside three miles west of Santa Ana. They were presented with many handsome and substantial gifts, including silver, cut glass, linen, furniture and household accessories, together with copious showers of good wishes.

The wedding guests included: Messrs. and Mrs. Fred Schroeder, J. H. Schroeder, Henry Witt and daughter Velma, Wm. Mauerhan and daughters Mildred and Grace; Rev. and Mrs. Schaeffe of Los Angeles, Rev. and Mrs. Theo. Schauer, Rev. Wm. Passer, Mrs. C. Hoefler, Mrs. Beckman; Messrs. and Mrs. Walter Radcliffe, John Boose, E. A. Kubitz; Misses Edith Keuchel, Edna Keuchel, Ida Schroeder, Ruth Schroeder, Minnie Rohrs, Mary Lutz, Freda Schroeder, Emma Schroeder, Helen Kubitz; Messrs. GOLDEN WEDDING

Anniversary Dinner For Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Chapman

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Chapman yesterday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a noon dinner party given them by their children at the home of C. H. Chapman. All six of their children were present, most of them with their families, including Albert E., C. H., E. M. and Fred S. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. George Etchison and Mrs. F. H. Cochran of River side.

Golden coreopsis made a beautiful and appropriate decoration for the rooms and also for the table, which was set with gold and white Haviland china. A most delectable three-course chicken dinner was served. A silver spoon over a hundred years old, which was used at the wedding fifty years ago, was used at yesterday's dinner, and among the most valued gifts was a beautiful dish painted in gold by a niece of Mr. Chapman, who was among the wedding guests a half century ago.

The cake was done in white with the dates in gold.
Place cards in dainty water colors were done by granddaughter, Velma Cochran, and souvenir cards, tied in gold ribbon and bearing in letters of gold the names of the bridal couple, with the date and place of their marriage, will be treasured by yesterday's guests.

A generous shower of gold coins was a gift much appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman were married at Sullivan, Franklin Co., Missouri, at high noon on February 28, 1867.

EDISON DOWNS POLY BATSMEN

Five Innings of Loose, Peppless Baseball Results In a Score of 7 to 3

Playing peppless baseball throughout, and displaying none of their accustomed team work, but instead pulling one or two "awful boners," Poly's ball squad went down to a 7 to 3 defeat at the hands of the Edison Company's aggregation last night. Only five spasms were indulged in but that was more than enough for "Shorty" Smith and Captain Holgrave. They were only too glad to call a halt after that and order the gingerest athletes to tear around the track and into the showers.

Smith used his third strong box artist last night in Brooks, the Laguna husky. The big right-hander evidently had an attack of stage fright in the opening round for he was trampled for four scores, but after that settled down materially and held his own with the opposing mound man, Barry McPhee.

As stated above, Smith's cohorts displayed about as much pep as a one-legged man at a picnic but there is one gent that can not be classed in the peppless squad. Taylor Vanderlip, veteran shortstop, had a big night, sticking perfectly and running the sacks like a reglar Cobb. In the last fracas he stole second, third and home on the highly touted Ed McGaffey. Vanderlip is improving with every combat and now looks to be the prize of the Poly crew.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts

—Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folk who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

POLY NEWS NOTES

This bird Vanderlip is rapidly developing into a demon. In every game this year the tall boy has been slugging in a manner that can't be overlooked and besides this he is the best man on the paths Smith has on his roster.

Neal Raney, athlete extraordinary, has been elected Poly's new track leader, to fill in the place left vacant by Trago, resigned. Raney reports optimistically on the team's chances against Fullerton Saturday.

The baseball team will take their first dash out of the county this coming Saturday to take on Long Beach High on the Beachcombers' diamond. Burke is slated to leave with "Cap" Holzgrate receiving.

A proposed baseball encounter with L. A. Normal for later in the season has fallen through.

With a splendid corps of twirlers, a steady backstop and a dependable infield, Chieftain Smith's biggest task out at Poly is to develop an outfield. The La Rue brothers, Pentecost, Wicks, Friend, Gerhart, Boyce, Adams, L. Burke and the other candidates fail to pass the rigid curriculum of the sport followers and indications are that those on the hurling staff will have to fill in when not being used on the mound.

Clarence Trotter is developing into a crack field man on Coach Hall's track varsity. Under the U. S. C. man's tutelage, the husky Sophomore has been high jumping better than 3:6 and nearing 10:6 in the pole. He is also showing to good advantage in the broad jump.

Ex-skinner Trago put on a track suit last night and on his first trial cleared 18:11 in the broad. This is within two or three inches of his record and Coach Hall counts on the all-around star to better twenty feet before the county meet, March 17.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

—Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

WORK ON BRIDGE ON W. CHAPMAN COMPLETED

This was written today noon on the work of constructing the $25,000 reinforced concrete bridge spanning the Santa Ana river on West Chapman street, and one week hence the bridge will be opened to traffic, providing it is accepted in the meantime by the board of supervisors and county surveyor. Thursday, March 8, is the date set for letting down the barriers and turning traffic over the bridge.

All that remains for Contractor H. C. Kellogg to finish up his job is the removal of the temporary bridge built to take care of traffic across the river while the construction work was in progress. This cannot be done until after the new bridge is opened.

Has Seven Spans

The structure is built of reinforced concrete and has seven spans. There are five 54-foot and seven 39½-foot spans. It is believed ample space has been made for any volume of water that might come down the river to pass under the structure.

The structure cost approximately $25,000.

Work was started about five months ago and contrary to expectations of the general public very little delay has been occasioned by the storm waters this winter.

"The last work on the building of this fine bridge was done at noon today," said Kellogg today. "All that remains for me to do to complete my contract is to remove the temporary bridge, and this I will do as soon as the new bridge is opened. The earliest date at which I could possibly turn the completed work over to the county is thirty days from the time I poured the last cement. That period will expire on Thursday, March 8. The opening on that date, of course, is contingent upon the action of the board of supervisors and county engineer. I cannot open it until it is accepted and on this point I anticipate no trouble or delay."

Regrets Lights' Absence

"I regret that provision was not made for the installation of ornamental lights on the bridge. I believe this should have been done. Ornamental posts would have added to the appearance of the structure. Lighted at night, it would attract the attention of tourists and would cause a great deal of favorable comment."

VALENCIA ORANGE SHOW AT ANAHEIM IN SUMMER, PLANNED

ANAHEIM, Mar. 1.—To the Board of Trade, John Ziegler of the Hotel Valencia proposed a Valencia Orange Show to be held here some time in June or July. This proposal met with the approval of every member present and many men were seen on their feet to show that they were ready to back a Valencia Orange Show here this summer and make it a success.

The show will be staged here in the early summer and will have the support of the late Valencia orange districts as this brand of orange is at its best at that time. The "frostless belt" is desirous of showing the state of California and the whole United States that this is really a true name for this part of California. To see that everything was carried out properly a committee of three will be appointed very soon by President F. A. Backs.

FORMER ANAHEIM MAN IMPRISONED

ANAHEIM, Mar. 1.—Arthur Von Heidekamp, former resident of this city, is now a prisoner in England. He was taken off a Swedish vessel and taken to one of the prison camps in Great Britain.

Von Heidekamp was with the First National Bank of this city a few years ago. Later he accepted a position with the First National Bank of Los Angeles and only left that city last November to join his regiment in Germany.

Traveling as a member of the crew of the Swedish vessel so that he would possibly get back to the homeland.

PIMPY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Heidekamp was taken off the boat at Kirkwall and there made a prisoner. A post card received by former German Consul Emil Doodl at Los Angeles was the first intimation that the many friends of the young banker had that he had become a prisoner of the British. In his card Von Heidekamp wished to be remembered to his friends in this part of the state. The card was read at a meeting of the Deutscher Klub at Los Angeles last night. William Falkenstein of Anaheim was present. Von Heidekamp is a member of the local Masonic lodge.

MUCH EXTRA WORK IN MARCH

—It's between seasons now, when few persons perspire as much as in the summer. The result is double work for the kidneys, for the kidneys must throw out waste matter from the system that is eliminated through the pores when persons perspire. They have been worth their weight in gold to me." Rowley Drug Co.

SISKIYOU COUNTY IS UNDER QUARANTINE

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—The State Board of Health, through Dr. Wilbur A. Sawyer, secretary, ordered a quarantine placed on Siskiyou county to prevent the spread of rabies, which recently have made an appearance there. The action follows an investigation made at the state laboratory at Berkeley with the result that it was found the disease was present in the heads of several animals sent for examination.

For the time being the quarantine affects the entire county, but the order may be modified, providing it is found that portions of the county can be excluded with safety.

THAW ACTS CHILDISH, DECLARES ALIENIST

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28.—Three alienists representing the New York district attorney's office examined Harry K. Thaw at the hospital where he has been confined since he slashed himself with a razor on January 11. At the conclusion of their examination, which lasted nearly two hours, the alienists gave no indication as to their impression concerning Thaw's mental state. Dr. Elwood Kirby, director of St. Mary's hospital, where Thaw is a patient, said Thaw's mind was not very clear during the examination.

"He acted very much like a child," said Dr. Kirby.

SALES DAY PROVING O. K. AT CORNING, CAL.

CORNING, Cal., Feb. 28.—The third monthly bargain and sales day was held here today and was declared to be even more successful than the two in January and December. Each merchant offered one specialty at a bargain price. A large corner lot was set aside for farmers and ranchers, on which to display farm implements and other articles they want to sell. These articles were auctioned off.

A bargain and sales day is held here on the last Wednesday of each month. It was inaugurated with a view to keeping trade at home.

EAT HALF POUND OF CHOCOLATES FOR YOUR BREAKFAST, SAYS GIRL

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—Eat chocolate for breakfast; half a pound of them will make you feel better and put you in cheerier spirits than a regular breakfast of bacon and eggs and grapefruit. That is what Miss Eunice Hughes advocates and does. She has kept it up several months and likes her early morning box of chocolates better now than ever. Eat soft chocolates and start with ice water, she says.

ENGLAND TO BUY 2000 AMERICAN TRACTORS FOR NIGHT PLOWING

LONDON, Feb. 28.—"We want 2000 American tractor plows for the use of a civilian army of night plowers which we are about to enlist throughout the British Isles," said Sir Arthur Lee, director general of food production. This new department, which is the outgrowth of Germany's submarine campaign, aims at the enlistment of several hundred thousand civilians to cultivate every available bit of soil.

"We hope to make the tractor plows all the gaps caused by the shortage in labor," continued Sir Arthur. "For this reason we are going to import as many as we can from America. We are going to equip them with headlights for night plowing. Laborers can work only eight hours, but tractors can work twenty-four hours. They will be driven by taxicab drivers and chauffeurs, who will be able to learn their mechanism in a few hours."

RELIGIOUS DOCTORS PLAN SOUL DOCTORING AFTER BIG WAR ENDS

BOSTON, Feb. 27.—On the theory that men's souls will be sick after the European war has finished tearing them to pieces, famous religious leaders met here today to consider what spiritual medicine shall be prepared for them. The prevention of future wars by proper religious teaching also will be considered.

"This convention of the Religious Education association," said Secretary Dr. Henry F. Cope of Chicago, today, "is one of preparedness by education rather than by argument." Among those present are Bishop Francis J. McConnell of Denver, Governor McCall of Massachusetts, Prof. J. E. Keller of Texas, Dr. Katsujiri Kato of Japan, William Douglas McKenzie of Hartford, Rabbi Henry Levi and Harrison C. Elliott of the International Y. M. C. A.

MERGER OF LOCAL SYSTEMS IS PROBABLE

In view of mergers which have been effected in other localities, it is believed that recent activities here along the line of invoicing of properties have been the result of contemplated uniting of the business of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company.

L. R. Ellis, county manager for the Home and son of George B. Ellis, president of the company, states that his company has been inventing its property here, but that so far as he knows it was not done for the express purpose of ascertaining the value as a preliminary to consolidation.

"It may be that this work was ordered with consolidation in view," said Ellis this morning, "but if that was the purpose, I know nothing of it. Managers are not usually advised of contemplated actions by the management, and if a merger of the two companies is in contemplation, I am not surprised that the information has been withheld from me."

The local manager's connection with the head of the Home company is such as to warrant the assumption that he knows more of what is developing than he will admit.

SAYS OLIVE BRIDGE WILL BE EXTENDED TO 1000 LENGTH

Anaheim Gazette: John Calkins, who has been doing repair work at the Olive bridge, says the approach on the west side is to be of a temporary nature, as he has been informed by Supervisor Schumacher that the bridge is to be extended, and when completed will be 1000 feet in length.

It will be the purpose to confine the flood waters within that area, and it is believed that when the new structure is finished no more difficulty will be experienced from high water at that point. During the past week a considerable volume of water has passed this point and the stream flow has been well confined, most of the water now passing under the bridge as now located. Quite a volume of the stream passes to the west of the bridge, but it is believed that this can be easily diverted so as to be confined within a more lessened area, thereby removing all danger from an overflow to the west.

Many people believe that were a channel dredged, beginning at a point above the bend in the river to the Olive bridge, the vexed problem would be solved. In the many years that have passed the old channel has gradually filled up with sand, making the bed of the river higher than its bank on the west, which naturally caused the overflow. Should means be devised to perfect this plan it is confidently believed that the sections to the east and west of this city would experience no more trouble from this source.

STATE'S CITRUS CROP WORTH $50,000,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The value of the 1916-1917 citrus crop of California is placed at $50,000,000 gross in a survey of the orange and lemon crops by citrus experts of the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe rail roads, made public here. Thirty-eight thousand carloads of oranges and 6750 carloads of lemons remain in Southern California, according to the report.

U. S. AID WILL GO TO SACRAMENTO VALLEY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Congress finally enacted the flood control bill when the house agreed to minor senate amendments and sent the measure to the President for his signature. It carries $45,000,000 for the Mississippi river and $5,000,000 for the Sacramento, to be spent on a continuing program of flood prevention. Local interests are required to provide sums equal to those furnished by the federal government.

SECOND DEGREE MURDER SAYS THE JURY

Francisco Marez Is to Receive Sentence From Judge West Tomorrow

The jury that tried Francisco Marez on a charge of murdering Marcos Guerra at Talbert on Sept. 24, 1911, brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree.

The jury was out two hours before the decision was reached. Judge West fixed tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock as the time for sentence. Under the law, sentence for murder in the second degree cannot be for less than ten years in prison, and it may be for life.

Guerra was shot down upon a road at night. There were no eye-witnesses.

KAISER'S PLOT IS FRUSTRATED

taken the proposals is not known definitely.

Only a short time ago, however, Caranza suggested an embargo on supplies to the allies, and there was the hint that the Mexican oil supplies of the British navy would be halted.

Japan has been hinting at trouble if the anti-allies bills were passed.

Hence, it is known that in these respects the two nations were trying the secret club of threatened trouble against the United States.

The administration has shown only part of his hand.

The Mexican-Japanese menace has loomed larger than officials cared to admit publicly.

The menace—based in the prima facie evidence of German deceit—recalls stories of emissaries who went back and forth from Mexico City to Tokyo.

It recalls stories of German reservists gathering in Mexico City.

It recalls wild stories of German agents in large numbers in Lower California.

Recalls Atchaf's Activities
It recalls activities of Captain Boyd and Captain von Papen, in Mexico, and in other countries south of the Rio Grande.

It is given frankly, but not officially, as one of the greatest reasons the administration sent Secretary of State Lansing and the attorney general to Congress to plead for the most stringent and rigid spy bills this government has ever considered.

At last, guided by congressional delays, and prospects of an even wider filibuster starting today to kill the armed neutrality bill, cripple the navy supply bill, and force an extra session, the administration showed the main part of the plot.

Behind the plot lies a sinister train of facts.
German agents followed developments of the Mexican peace conference at Atlantic City. After they appeared it was noticeable that Luis Cabrera, clever diplomat, member of the Mexican group, gave out disquieting hints.

Talks of U. S.—Mexico Crisis

He talked of the relations of Japan and Mexico—a sinister hint that the American government did not fail to note, though at the time it did not suspect that there was, in the making, anything so tremendous as a German plot that might react upon the very existence of this nation.

Since then there have been German spies on the Mexican border. There have been secret missions between Mexico City and Washington on the part of Teuton diplomats.

But the message intended for the German envoy at Mexico City came into American government hands opportunely and gave this nation sufficient warning wherewith to combat the machinations.

Now the whole affair, for the time being, is up to Congress. Despite this menacing turn in an already tensely strained situation, Senator La Follette, when the senate adjourned early today to meet again in mid-forenoon, served notice that he had three days material ready for a filibuster. He is opposed to the extent of the navy bill.

In connection with the revelation of the German-Mexican-Japanese situation, it was strongly hinted today the government already has information, or has lines out to get it, concerning the recent Cuban uprising, quite generally interpreted as of German origin.

Authorities here have watched that case closely in view of the dangerous possibilities to the United States.

Back of these international plottings may be a plot within the United States to encourage food riots as propaganda support of an embargo on supplies to the enemy allies.

It is known secret service men are engaged, not only on the Cuban-Mexican-Japanese angle, but likewise on the domestic situation.

It is hinted the department of justice might have startling facts concerning the food matter shortly.

BARREL IS READY FOR ORANGE DAY BOOST LETTERS

The barrel in which to drop letters of local residents to friends in the east boosting National Orange Day, March 10th, is in position at the post-office.

R. L. Bisby, who is chairman of the committee, placed the barrel at the office yesterday afternoon. It is decorated with National Orange Day stickers and is topped with a beautiful placard directing that letters be dropped in the barrel.

A barrel of letters is not too much to expect from Santa Anans who formerly resided in the east. Will those in charge of this feature of the day be disappointed?

The orange is a subject upon which every one can write. A letter or two from every former resident of the east now living in the west would fill the barrel.

Suggestion that the day be observed by the use of oranges in some form is all that is necessary. Recipes printed in the Register could be forwarded with a letter. It would please the recipient and induce the use of the golden fruit.

Everybody do it.

COUNTY AWAITS $65,286 FROM THE STATE

There is $65,286 at Sacramento that belongs to the schools of Orange county, and just how it is going to get here has not been decided. The money has been apportioned by County School Superintendent Mitchell, and so far as his books are concerned, the various school districts have the money. As a matter of fact, the money is in Sacramento.

When State School Superintendent Hyatt issued a circular giving notice that the second quarterly apportionment of school money had been made, he stated that State Treasurer Richardson had made arrangements to transport the money to the various county treasurers without cost to the school fund.

A year ago the county treasurer would have handled the matter through a draft, but since the county has gone upon a cash basis, the local banks decline to handle the exchange of $65,286. Last week County Treasurer Joplin wrote a letter to the state controller, inclosing State Superintendent Hyatt's order for the money, and requested that the money be sent at once without cost to the county.

The money has not come, and the county treasurer is wondering why. He is also wondering who is going to pay transportation charges. The express company will charge 75 cents per $1000 for transporting currency and $125 for gold. The demand of $48.75 would not be payable out of the county's funds, and the money as apportioned can be used only for teachers' salaries. Joplin is waiting to hear from Sacramento.

ORANGE TO HAVE A PRE-COOLING PLANT SOON

ORANGE, March 1.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Santiago Orange Growers Association today it was decided to erect a new packing-house and pre-cooling plant here.

The directors of the association were directed by the stockholders to proceed at once to secure plans and specifications for a new packing-house, ice plant and pre-cooling plant, and report to the stockholders within sixty days.

B. C. Cruickshank of La Verne, near Pomona, spoke at the meeting. He said his association's plant cost $95,000, and it is paying for itself. The association had paid the railroad ten cents a box for pre-cooling. Before the plant was finished it had more applications from other associations for its use than it could handle.

The plant that will be built here will have a capacity of 1,000 carloads per year.

CANYON ROAD TO MACHINE THAT BE READY BY SUMMER CROOK TRADED GOES TO DAVIS

The concrete retaining wall being built at Sulphur Slide in the Santa Ana canyon will be completed and the road open to traffic before the summer rush to the beaches, according to the statement of Contractor H. C. Kellogg this morning.

The retaining wall will be twelve feet high and reach above the flood line, thus preventing washing out of the bank at this point during future high water periods, in the Santa Ana river.

The point has always been the cause of trouble in maintaining the canyon road in the winter months.

The contractor is now laboring at some disadvantage, as supplies and materials have to be shipped in over a temporary road.

If the work is not interrupted by further floods, Kellogg says he will complete the contract within three months.

Fine Points of Law Involved In Aftermath of I. H. Weaver's Misdoings

By a decision rendered by Judge Thomas today, Attorney E. J. Marks of Fullerton will have to stand the loss occasioned by one of the crooked deals pulled off by I. H. Weaver before he departed from Santa Ana last June.

Weaver went to Marks with a new Auburn car, worth $1210. He traded the Auburn to Marks for $550 cash and an old Patterson car.

At the time, Weaver was a salesman for Charles L. Davis, auto agent at Santa Ana. The Auburn belonged to Davis. When Weaver absconded with the $550 he had received from Marks and with the proceeds of the sale of an automobile belonging to Rev. J. A. Stevenson, who had befriended Weaver, Davis laid claim to the Auburn.

Suit for its possession was brought for Davis by Attorney Clyde Bishop, and the case was tried before Judge Thomas. There was no conflict on the main points of the evidence, but the attorneys, the defendant being represented by Attorneys H. H. Coyle and H. C. Head, clashed over the law. Numerous authorities were cited. The plaintiff asserted that Weaver did not act within his authority as salesman in making the trade, and the defendant admitted that he did not know Weaver was employed by Davis.

Judge Thomas gave judgment to Davis for the machine or for $1210. Marks will get his Patterson machine back.

Since leaving here, Weaver has been arrested and is now being prosecuted for a felony in the East.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT SEEING WITNESSES ASKS CASE GO OVER

Man Accused of Begging, Fearing Conviction, Not Ready For Trial

When William Burns, rather belligerent, came into Justice Cox's court this morning to answer to a charge of begging, he looked around the room and saw a number of women he had met at various back doors where he had applied for food and money.

"I am not ready to go to trial," said he, "because I do not think I would get a square deal."

"How do you mean you wouldn't get a square deal?" asked Cox.

"There are too many witnesses here against me for me to go to trial now." The trial was continued to March 15. The man was arrested by City Officer Cook.

We extend to the people of Santa Ana and vicinity the accommodations of a strong, progressive and well equipped bank. We adhere strictly to the established rules of safe banking, and at the same time offer our patrons every banking facility.

In forming a banking connection the first consideration is the reliability of the bank and its directorate.

Investigation will prove to the depositor that the officers and directors of this bank are practical bankers and business men, that our bank has ample capital and that we have the ability and resources to give the community the highest degree of banking service in every particular.
